

Do not overturn New Jersey's telephone consumer protection Act. It is working for New Jersey residents in keeping the number of bothersome solicitation telemarketing calls down within the state versus pre-enactment. The FCC should support the efforts New Jersey is making concerning the Telephone Consumer Protection Act.